

Workshop: Kidney Allocation: Evaluations and Perspectives

June 28, 2018

Paris School of Economics | LEMMA (Université Panthéon-Assas)

Campus Jourdan - Salle R1-13 - 48 boulevard Jourdan 75014 Paris

09:00 - 10:00	Peter Biro (Hungarian Academy of Sciences) “Kidney Exchange Practices in Europe”
10:00 – 10:30	Coffee Break
10:30 - 11:30	Marie-Alice Macher (Agence de Bio-Médecine) “Kidney transplantation with living donor versus deceased donor in France From the subsidiarity desired by the pioneers to complementarity”
11:30 – 12:30	Victor Hiller (LEMMA, Université Panthéon-Assas) “Perspectives on the Kidney Exchange Program in France” joint with Audry, Combe, He, Jacquelinet, Macher, Tercieux
12:30 – 14:00	Lunch
14:00 - 15:00	Maximilien Burq (MIT) “Matching and Thickness / Match Run Frequencies” joint with Ashlagi, Bingaman, Manshadi, Gamarnik, Murphey, Roth, Melcher, Rees
15:00 - 16:00	Daniel Waldinger (MIT) “An Empirical Framework for Sequential Assignment: The Allocation of Deceased Donor Kidneys” joint with Agarwal, Ashlagi, Rees and Somaini
16:00 – 16:30	Coffee Break
16:30 - 17:30	Yinghua He (Rice) “Kidney Exchange in the Shadow of Desensitization” joint with Combe, Hiller and Tercieux
	Dinner

Organizers:

- Julien Combe (UCL, London),
- Victor Hiller (LEMMA, U Panthéon-Assas)
- Olivier Tercieux (Paris School of Economics)

If you wish to attend, please register here, before June 15, 2018.

If you experience any difficulties, please contact caroline.bauer@ens.fr